OHIO: POINT SOURCE REDUCTION BMPS

The Ohio Environmental Protection Agency, in conjunction with local authorities, will track the installation of point source nutrient reduction best management practices (BMPs) since 2008. Tracking will include all major National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permits with discharge limits, those required to complete a technical and feasibility study, combined sewer overflow (CSO) outfalls, and state- or federally-funded stormwater management practices.

TYPE
Investment

ISSUE
ErieStat